IEC-IEEE-KATS Academic Challenge “Future Challenges in Standardization”

Dear Sir/Madam,

The IEC, IEEE and KATS are organizing a global academic challenge open to academia from engineering, information technology, economic, political and environmental sciences as well as research institutes and industry.

To ensure broad participation by teaching and research staff, we ask you to encourage participation in the challenge of key academics by making use of all possible means. Please find herewith a link to the pre-announcement you can share with your contacts.

The prize money for the challenge is financed by the sponsoring programme of the IEC General Meeting 2018 in Busan, Republic of Korea. Here is a link to the programme, we recommend you to forward it to your stakeholders.

Online abstract registration opens 30th November (link) closes by 31st January 2018 and full paper submission is open no later than 31st March 2018.

1st Prize: USD 20 000

2nd Prize: USD 15 000

3rd Prize (3 papers): USD 6 000

Prizes will be awarded in October 2018 at the General Meeting in Busan, Republic of Korea

Detailed rules can be found on the <https://iecieeeekats.com> website.

Thank you for your help in increasing awareness of International Standards and boosting participation in this important international challenge.

Yours faithfully,

F.W.P. Vreeswijk
General Secretary & CEO
